Process may be obtained on KENES LAJEUNESSE by serving the Chairman of the Texas Transportation Commission pursuant to Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § Remedies Code 17.062 et seq.

III. JURISDICTION

Jurisdiction is proper in this Court because Plaintiffs are entitled to damages in excess of the minimum jurisdiction of this Court. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks monetary relief of over $1,000,000.

IV. VENUE

Pursuant to Section 15.002(A)(1) of the TEXAS CIVIL PRACTICE & REMEDIES CODE, venue is proper in Bell County because it is the county in which all or a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred.

V. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Plaintiffs, AARON POLK and DILLON SMITH, bring this suit to recover damages for personal injuries sustained as a result of a collision in Bell County, Texas, on or about June 7, 2016. Said collision was proximately caused by the negligence of Defendants.

At the time of the occasion in question, Plaintiffs were making a left turn from the 400 block of East Adams Avenue onto 100 North 12th Street, Temple, Bell County, Texas.

Just after Plaintiff's vehicle started making the turn, Defendant, KENES LAJEUNESSE, who was operating a 2016 Freightliner Tractor Trailer, made an improper and excessively wide turn from North 12th Street onto the westbound lanes of East Adams Avenue. Suddenly and without warning, Plaintiffs' vehicle was struck on the front left by the Defendant's vehicle. Defendant fled the scene of the accident and failed to render aid to Plaintiffs after a witness informed Defendant about the collision Defendant caused. Defendant's failure to keep a proper lookout and operate his vehicle with reasonable care caused Plaintiffs to suffer severe injuries and damages.

VI. RESPONDEAT SUPERIOR

At all times material hereto, all agents, servants, and/or employees of Defendant, CRETE CARRIER CORPORATION, were acting within the course and scope of employment and/or official duties. Furthermore, at all times material hereto, all agents, servants, and/or employees of Defendant, CRETE CARRIER CORPORATION, were acting in furtherance of the duties of their office and/or employment. Therefore, Defendant, CRETE CARRIER CORPORATION, is responsible for all damages resulting from the negligent acts and/or omissions of its agents, servants, and/or employees pursuant to the Doctrine of Respondeat Superior.

VII. NEGLIGENCE

Plaintiff alleges that, upon the occasion in question, Defendant failed to use ordinary care in operating a vehicle in at least one or more of the following ways:

- a. Failing to keep a proper lookout;
- b. Failing to maintain control of a vehicle;
- c. Failing to pay adequate attention;
- d. Failing to use due caution; and
- e. Failing to use reasonable care to aid or assist a person when Defendant's conduct placed the person in a position of peril.

Each and all of the above stated acts and/or omissions constitute negligence and the same are a direct and proximate cause of the injuries and damages sustained by Plaintiff.

VIII. NEGLIGENCE PER SE

Moreover, Plaintiff would show that, at the time of the incident in question, Defendant violated Texas state laws and regulations in each of the following ways:

- a. Failing to approach and the turn as closely as practicable to the right-hand curb or edge of the roadway in violation of TEXAS TRANSPORTATION CODE § 545.101(A);
- b. Failing to remain at the scene of a collision in violation of TEXAS TRANSPORTATION CODE § 550.021; and
- c. Failing to provide reasonable assistance to persons injured in a collision in which Defendant was involved.

Each and all of the above stated acts and/or omissions constitute negligence and the same are a direct and proximate cause of the injuries and damages sustained by Plaintiffs.

IX. NEGLIGENT ENTRUSTMENT

Plaintiffs further allege that, on or about the occasion in question, Defendant, CRETE CARRIER CORPORATION, owned the vehicle that was operated by Defendant, KENES LAJEUNESSE. KENES LAJEUNESSE was in possession of said vehicle with the express consent of Defendant, CRETE CARRIER CORPORATION.

Defendant, CRETE CARRIER CORPORATION, entrusted the vehicle to KENES LAJEUNESSE for the purpose of operating it on the public streets and highways of Texas, and KENES LAJEUNESSE operated it with the knowledge, consent, and permission of CRETE CARRIER CORPORATION, INC. At such time, KENES LAJEUNESSE was incompetent and unfit to safely operate a motor vehicle on the public streets and highways of Texas. Defendant, CRETE CARRIER CORPORATION, INC., knew or should have known, in the exercise of due care, that KENES LAJEUNESSE was an incompetent and unfit driver and would create an unreasonable risk of danger to persons and property on the public streets and highways of Texas.

Plaintiff also alleges that, upon the occasion in question, KENES LAJEUNESSE was negligent for failing to use ordinary care by various acts and omissions in at least one of the following ways:

- a. Knowingly and negligently entrusting a vehicle to a reckless driver;
- b. Knowingly and negligently entrusting a vehicle to a fatigued driver;
- c. Knowingly and negligently entrusting a vehicle to an uninsured driver;
- d. Knowingly and negligently entrusting a vehicle to an inexperienced driver; and
- e. Knowingly and negligently entrusting a vehicle to a restricted driver.

Each and all of the above stated acts and/or omissions constitute negligence and the same are a direct and proximate cause of the injuries and damages sustained by Plaintiffs.

X. GROSS NEGLIGENCE

Immediately after the incident in question, KENES LAJEUNESSE's conduct created an extreme risk by a reckless disregard of the rights, welfare, and safety of other motorists, pedestrians and other persons. Although aware of this risk, Defendant's actions, by knowingly leaving the scene of a collision in which someone suffered personal injury, demonstrate a conscious indifference to the rights, welfare, and safety of other motorists, pedestrians and other persons. Although aware of the risk to the rights, welfare and safety of other motorists, Defendant disregarded said risks. Such conduct demonstrates a conscious indifference to the rights, welfare, and safety of other motorists, pedestrians and other persons. The malice demonstrated by such conduct was a proximate cause of the damages to Plaintiffs and therefore, Plaintiffs are entitled to recover punitive damages.

XI. DAMAGES

Plaintiffs would show that, as a direct and proximate result of the above-mentioned collision, Plaintiffs sustained significant personal injuries and damages, including but not limited to the following:

- a. Past and future physical pain and suffering;
- b. Past and future mental anguish;
- c. Past and future medical expenses;
- d. Past and future lost wages;
- e. Past and future physical impairment; and
- f. Past and future loss of enjoyment of life.

XII. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs request that Defendants be cited to appear and answer and that on final hearing Plaintiffs have judgment against Defendants for an amount within the jurisdictional limits of this Court, together with pre-judgment and post-judgment interest as provided by law, costs of court and for such other and further relief, at law or in equity to which Plaintiffs are justly entitled.
